PEACE

The greeting of peace at Mass adds substance to a message of today's readings: peace is relational. When we greet in peace the person near us at Mass, we share the touch of a handshake or embrace, sincere eye contact, and friendly words.

The scriptures speak of a similar peace. The first reading from Isaiah describes the peace of the holy city, Jerusalem, a place of prosperity and comfort where the "LORD's power shall be known to his servants" (Isaiah 66:14c).

The Christian understanding of peace changes slightly. Paul writes of the "peace and mercy" on all who are created anew. Jesus describes a feeling of peace that will rest on those who accept his disciples and their message.

Peace is both an absence of strife and a personal blessing. May we always and sincerely bring peace to our own lives as we share it with others.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Some say tomato—and some say tomahto—you know the old song. What do you say when you arrive at church and see a font prepared, a baby in the wings, the paschal candle burning? Well, maybe you will say that "we're having a baptism today," or maybe you say "we are having a christening." The proper term is baptism, since that is the name of the sacrament. But the persistent use of "christening" in our culture, probably due to the influence of the Episcopal Church, is interesting.

Baptism, an ancient word, is from the Greek meaning to dip or to dunk. Christening is an Old English word that describes perfectly well that more than getting splashed with water, the person being baptized is being "Christ-ed." No matter what you call it, there's always water involved, and then an anointing with chrism—fragrant olive oil consecrated as a sign of Christ's presence—poured upon the brow as we say, "As Christ was anointed Priest, Prophet, and King, so may you live always as a member of his body, sharing everlasting life."

So, in being Christ-ed, you are conformed to his image, your life is expected to be a retelling of his life in miniature and you—even though you may be squirming or sleeping—are commissioned to be a priest, a prophet, a king. This means that you are called to be one who worships, you are called to speak the truth, you are called to shape the world and exercise right judgment. That is the deepest treasure of our tradition, and every time you gather to celebrate a baptism, you renew your vows precisely so that you can be more "Christ-ed." No matter what vocabulary you assign to the liturgy, the key is transformation of the human person in the community of the Body of Christ.

Pastor's Column

Fare Thee Well – With a heavy heart, Sr. Mary Peter informed me that she is resigning from her position as the Director of Religious Education (DRE) here at St. Anne, effective July 1, 2016. She wrote that her decision to resign was "a difficult choice after careful consideration of several factors, particularly my health." She decided also to return to the Philippines but will continue in her ministry of Education there, which is dear to her heart. Sr. Mary Peter Tengco is the founder of their community, Adoration Sisters of St. Francis (ASSF) and of Our Lady of Peace Fraternity. Sr. Mary Francis will continue to serve here and help with the Religious Education Program (aka – CCD). Their community seeks to observe the Holy Gospel as taught by our Lord Jesus Christ and to follow the example of St. Francis by striving to live with joy the virtues of poverty, humility, simplicity and fraternity. The Mission of the Adoration Sisters of St. Francis is to evangelize through Education and by personal witness in their daily lives. The Mission of Our Lady of Peace Fraternity is to support the Sisters in their Mission. (You can visit and Like them on Facebook.) As she leaves us, she will continue to serve the Lord. But from her 8 years with us, she shared that she has "seen tremendous growth and spirit among the Catechists." And she is so proud also of her students and grateful for the role their parents have played in supporting and encouraging their children in the journey of faith. Sr. Mary Peter, we will miss you. Your gentle ways, guided by the Spirit, have touched many hearts and many lives. I am personally grateful for your support and ministry among us. May God bless you as you begin a new chapter in life and faithful service to our Lord.

Parish Picnic - You've been hearing for the past few Sundays announcements about our Parish Picnic at Golden Gate Park (GGP). Besides jumpy houses for the kids, there'll be plenty of good food and good fun. The youth ministers Danyelle Velonza and Trina & Ryan Dilag will be inviting the Jr. High and High School teens to the picnic as well. They're coordinating games with the teens and youth. The picnic will be next Sunday, July 10 and begin with a Mass there at 11:30am followed by food and games.

The location is at Elk Glen Picnic Area in Golden Gate Park. Enter the park at 25th Avenue at Lincoln, and the picnic area will be on the right.

Hope to see you there (it's free)!

Dear Saint Anne Parishioners,

Oh yea! Oh yea!

The feast of St. Anne is upon us once again, Last year I had a wonderful, spirit-filled experience of the novena. Through her intercession, one of the petitions that I prayed for was granted. I prayed for a friend who was seriously ill, and a couple months later my friend informed me of her excellent recovery. Thank you, Saint Anne, for your intercession.

This year we look forward to seeing all of you once again as we come together in prayer to our dear Saint Anne. I invite you to join us for the nine-day celebration from July 18-26. The times are 8:45AM, 2:30PM and 7:00PM. This year's theme is Mercy.

I hope to see you during the Saint Anne's Novena. God bless all of you!

In Christ the Redeemer,

Fr. Eugene T. Batungbacal, C.Ss.R.

St. Anne Mission Statement

We, the people of Saint Anne, envision a Christ-centered community, enriched by the gifts of a diverse heritage. We remember the past and are open to the future; living out the Gospel values with enthusiasm, joy and celebration under the protection of Saint Anne.

We commit ourselves to sharing the mission belonging to all followers of Christ: caring for one another and reaching out to those in need.

We commit ourselves to revitalizing our parish community; to participating meaningfully in the celebration of the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, to developing a strong sense of stewardship; and to regularly evaluating our work and ministries.

May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ.
