A Student's Report

To encourage our students to practice their faith in the Summer, I invited a few students to share their faith experiences while they were on holiday. 7th grader Ms. Mia Leluc shared the following from her visit to Barcelona, Spain. Thank you, Mia! -Fr. Dan

The Sagrada Família (Holy Family) is a piece of art created and partly executed by Antoni Gaudí, known to many as God's architect. Antoni Gaudí was a very Catholic person who was entirely devoted to God. When Antoni Gaudí created this basilica he wanted people who aren't Catholic to be able to learn from just looking at the church. The Sagrada Família took a long time to be built. In fact, it isn't even done. Constructors predict that thanks to computers the Sagrada Família will be done in approximately ten years. Gaudí knew that this wasn't going to be a short project, so to motivate people to continue his masterpiece after he died, he smartly created one façade. This façade was the breathtaking Nativity. You might be thinking, "Wow, that is cool." Well, it gets better. Inside, Gaudí made a forest with stained glass showing light at different times of the day, the columns are trees, the stairs are snails, and the lights are stars. He made the inside filled with nature because to him nature symbolizes new life and he wanted his church to be filled with new life. The towers of the Sagrada Família are really tall. The tallest one is the tower of Jesus which is 175 ft. Gaudí only made the tower of Jesus this high because he knew Mont Juic, the tallest God-made hill in Barcelona, was 175 ft. and he thought it would be disrespectful to make something bigger than what the Lord has already created.

Sign-Up for Sunday School –

As the children return back to school, our Religious Education program for Public School Students will also begin on Sunday, September 11, 2016 @ 9am in our Elementary School Building.

As many of you know, Sr. Mary Peter resigned from being the Director of Religious Education to return and serve in the Philippines. Prior to her departure, she introduced Mrs. Rachel Penalosa Gee to continue her work. Mrs. Gee is well qualified for the position. She has taught at St. Thomas the Apostle school for 10 years, she's been a Youth Ministry Director for 5 years and a Religious Education teacher for another 5 years. Her own daughter now attends public school and has attended Sunday school at St. Anne in the past year. Her heart echoes the motto of our Religious Education program which is To Know Christ Better, and to Make Christ Better Known. Please join me in welcoming Mrs. Gee as the new Religious Education Coordinator and don't forget to sign-up your children for Religious Education. A sign-up table will be at the Judah St. entrance of our Church or you can sign up on line by visiting our website, www.stanne-sf.org.

Welcome Back to School – Our faculty and staff began preparing for our children's return earlier last week and our school officially began on Wed., Aug 24th. We welcome our new Kindergarten teacher Ms. Candice Galdo. Mrs. Kathryn Henderson retired last school year after teaching here for 32 years. We wish her a blessed retirement as she and her husband begin a new chapter in life, and we welcome Ms. Candice Galdo as she enthusiastically begins a new school year with us. As she so beautifully shared with us, she loves teaching Kindergarten because that's where the children learn the basic building blocks for the rest of their lives. And she's excited to help them begin well so they can grow and blossom to their fullest potential in the years ahead. Welcome Back to School!

Thank You Fr. Lawrence Ng – I want to thank Fr. Lawrence Ng, who covered for me while I was on vacation the last few weekends. Fr. Lawrence is a priest of the Archdiocese of Kuala Lumpur in Malaysia. We met when we were students in Taiwan learning Mandarin in 2008. He is currently a Doctoral student at the Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley. Thank you, Fr. Lawrence.
