The LORD is my light and my salvation;
whom should I fear?
— Psalm 27:1

STAND FIRM IN THE LORD

It is not hard to imagine, in this age of wars, evil groups bent on the destruction of humanity, and political follies, that the words of Saint Paul were so accurate, even for his time. It seems that the world never changes. Paul says, "Many . . . conduct themselves as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their end is their destruction . . . Their minds are occupied with earthly things" (Philippians 3:18, 19). The result is the destruction of innocent people and of the Earth itself. But Paul says to the Philippians, "our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we also await a savior, the Lord Jesus Christ" (3:20). He will "change our lowly body to conform with his glorified body" (3:21). Note that he says "body" rather than "bodies." He is talking about the whole community of believers, who, following the example of Jesus and of Paul, will come into the glory of God. So "stand firm in the Lord" (4:1).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

By now, many may have failed in Lenten discipline to some measure or another: the daily doughnut is simply too alluring, or a furtive puff on a cigarette irresistible. There is meaning even in the failure, though, a kind of reminder that we cannot save ourselves. Part of the power of Lent is that we do it together, and although individuals decide on different ways to keep it, it is fundamentally the same journey. We fall, we get up, we keep moving. The desire to "give something up" for Lent is an age-old impulse in the Christian heart. We get better at it over the years, and move more deeply into the meaning and message of acts of sacrifice; so there is no shame in stumbling, as long as we are not discouraged by the failure and give up. We are clearing space in our lives, after all, and some of the things we desire to give up are worth rooting out completely anyway.

What do we do with the space we have cleared out by our sacrifice? The Lenten question of giving up is balanced by the Easter question of our response to Christ's embrace of us in love: "What are you taking on for Easter?" —James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Pastor's Column

Welcome to our Elect – The term Elect is used in the Church to designate those persons who are in the final preparation for the Easter Sacraments of Initiation. Typically when someone is interested in the Catholic faith, they begin by asking questions, and in that period they are known as Inquirers. If they choose to continue, they are then formally welcomed into a period of preparation. At that point, they are introduced and welcomed into the Church as Catechumens. Lent was originally a time of deeper preparation for those Catechumens ready to be baptized. During this time, the Church prays with them and for them, and they are enrolled on the first Sunday of Lent as members of the Elect. They become the Elect not in the popular notion of someone running for public office and being elected, but because they have chosen God and God likewise has chosen them. They are the Elect because they've been chosen by God to be His disciple. Last Sunday, 4 teens and 8 adults have become the Elect of God. The teens had a ceremony at our parish in which they wrote their names in the Book of the Elect. The adults attended a liturgy last Sunday afternoon presided by Archbishop Cordileone, and with adults from throughout the Archdiocese, they publicly stated their desire to be baptized at Easter. The Elect of our parish are:

Teens:

- Caroline Zheng
- Nicolino Will
- Malachi Thomas
- Mercury Thomas

Adults:

- Wen-Chiao Waye Lin
- Annie Kit Bing Chang
- Walton Chan
- Qinyu Hu
- Ruby Yee
- Robin Wong
- Fung Kin Chan Ma
- Maria Irene Lau

We welcome them as the Elect of our parish. Along with these Elect, Mark Domingo is also preparing for Confirmation. Please hold them in prayer this Lent that they may grow in the knowledge and love of God.

Scam Alert – As I shared last week, please be aware that there are scammers out there impersonating me via email and text. They use email service providers such as Google or Yahoo to request you to contact them, then they'll ask you for a special financial favor. If you receive any request for personal financial favors from me, please disregard the message and forward their email to my official work email at frdan@stanne-sf.org.

I will notify their service providers of their fraud so they can cancel their account. Thank you!
