The Most Holy Trinity

June 16, 2019

[T]he love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit.

— Romans 5:5b

Ordinary Time

Last Sunday, we ended our Easter season with the Solemnity of Pentecost. We transitioned back to what we call Ordinary Time. We call this Ordinary Time not because there is nothing special about it—in fact, every Sunday is as special as Easter Sunday, because every celebration of the Holy Eucharist is a moment to receive the grace the Lord has won for us through His passion, death and resurrection.

Unlike the various seasons wherein there is a distinctive character, such as the mystery of the Incarnation during the Advent/Christmas seasons, and the Paschal Mystery during the Lent/Easter seasons, Ordinary Time focuses on the entire mystery of Christ—His life, works, and teachings. This is a season wherein the Church invites us to grow in our relationship with Jesus, through our encounters with Him in His Word and His Body and Blood.

The color of the priests' vestments is green to signify growth—growth in our spiritual life, and in our knowledge and love for God. With this, may I remind you of the importance of celebrating the Holy Mass every Sunday, even during Ordinary Time. May I invite everyone to make this a Special Season of Growth in God's Grace.

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

During Ordinary Time, there are certain solemnities of the Lord that we celebrate, like the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (next Sunday), the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus (the Friday after the Second Sunday after Pentecost) and Christ the King (end of the Liturgical Year). Today, we celebrate one of these solemnities called the Most Holy Trinity. This is the central mystery of our Christian faith and life. It is a mystery hidden from the full comprehension of our human mental capacities, but a truth regarding the identity of God. And it requires faith to accept it.

Whenever we make the sign of the cross “in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit”, we profess our faith in the Holy Trinity. In the Creed that we recite every Sunday, we acknowledge our belief in a God who is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. At times, we take this for granted, but these are simple ways wherein we profess our faith in and acceptance of the Trinitarian God.

I would like to propose for us two points we can learn from this mystery. First, ONE- EQUAL IN DIGNITY. Just as there is One God, we remember, as baptized Catholics, that we all share the same dignity as children of God and that we are all equally important in God's eyes. Regardless of who we are, we are all equally loved by God. Second, THREE- UNITY IN DIVERSITY. Just as there are Three Persons in God, diverse in their way of being present and showing us their love, so too are we all given diverse gifts by the Holy Spirit, which we call charisms. All of us are gifted with different talents that together can contribute to the building up of the Kingdom of God here on earth, the Church.

With this, I invite everyone to love one another as brothers and sisters, regardless of age, ethnicity, gender, or economic standing. Also, I invite everyone to discover their God-given charism and help in building up our faith community, the Church.

- Fr. Pete

Pro-Life Leadership Event : Sunday, June 23 through Saturday, June 29, Sacramento, California
Students for Life of America (SFLA) invites youth 18 years & older to be part of its West Coast Stop Campus Abortions Mission Trip. Participants will spend a week in Sacramento working to stop Senate Bill 24, which would require all public universities to provide access to abortion by medication with RU-486, the abortion pill. SFLA will train participants and engage in all five pillars of pro-life activism: lobbying legislators, touring pregnancy centers, rallying in front of the capitol, sidewalk counseling, and hosting pro-life displays. Chemical abortions are used to kill an unborn child up to ten weeks old. Cost for the week is $100 per participant, which includes travel, hotel, and food stipend. For more info and to register, visit studentsforlife.org

California Bishops Urge Action against Senate Bill 360 Threatening Confession — The California Catholic Conference of Bishops (CCC) asks California Catholics to pay attention to the progress of Senate Bill 360 in the state legislature and to express to legislators their disagreement with a proposed law that would require priests to violate the seal of sacramental Confession. To learn more about this attack on our religious liberty, visit YouTube and view all eight short Catholic News Service videos by entering Threats to the Seal of Confession. Then go to cacatholic.org to find the latest news from CCC and links to take action!

Religious Freedom Week: June 22 – June 29

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops encourages Catholics to pray and act in support of religious liberty at home and abroad during Religious Freedom Week 2019, which begins on June 22, the Feast of Saints Thomas More and John Fisher, and ends on June 29, the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul. Archbishop Joseph Kurtz states: "Catholics face challenges both in our current political climate of polarization and within the Church. Christian child welfare institutions and Catholics in public life are encountering significant obstacles to their work, while our brothers and sisters in places like Nigeria suffer violent persecution. We want to build solidarity and to encourage Catholics to persist in the struggle to advance the kingdom of God by finding hope in Jesus Christ." Resources of all kinds, for parishes, schools, and individuals, can be found at sfarchdiocese.org/freedom. New Beginnings: A Catholic Divorce Ministry

The Archdiocese strives to make known Christ's healing love, so that all who suffer from separation or divorce might experience new life, reconciliation, and restoration, and by meeting people in a similar position may find help to rebuild their own lives. We also recognize that separated and divorced people are not mere recipients of the Church's compassion; they are also ministers of that compassion. Through their vulnerability, suffering, courage, faithfulness, and patient endurance they bear witness to Christ and his redeeming grace in the world. New Beginnings Ministry offers a support group on the First and Third Wednesdays, 7:00 pm, at St. Brendan Church, Parish Center, 29 Rockaway Ave., San Francisco. Contact Diana (415-929-0999 / dianamwild@gmail.com) or Martin (650-739-6446) for more information.

The Archdiocesan Annual Appeal 2019 has begun!

This is the best opportunity we at Saint Anne will find to share in all the good work that our Archdiocese does—from helping those in need to supporting our youth, our seniors, our schools, and our seminarians. This year Saint Anne has been called on to meet the goal of raising $50,288.60 for this worthy effort. Please give whatever you can. All money raised in excess of the goal returns to Saint Anne. Brochures are in the pews.

St. Anne Mission Statement

We, the people of Saint Anne, envision a Christ-centered community, enriched by the gifts of a diverse heritage. We remember the past and are open to the future; living out the Gospel values with enthusiasm, joy and celebration under the protection of Saint Anne.

We commit ourselves to sharing the mission belonging to all followers of Christ: caring for one another and reaching out to those in need.

We commit ourselves to revitalizing our parish community; to participating meaningfully in the celebration of the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, to developing a strong sense of stewardship; and to regularly evaluating our work and ministries.
