Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 18, 2019

[Jesus] endured the cross, despising its shame, and has taken his seat at the right of the throne of God.

—Hebrews 12:2

LISTEN TO JESUS AND THE PROPHETS

Prophets have always had a tough row to hoe. Their words, often unwelcome, are used against them to persecute and even kill them. Such was the fate of the Old Testament prophets, and Jeremiah is a great example of this. Jesus endured opposition from sinners, and did not turn back from a shameful death in order to rise to a glorious new life. The ultimate prophet, Jesus sought to warn the people of his time and ours of the divisions that his words would cause, showing himself to be the prophet of all time. We all need to look at our divisions and dilemmas in light of Jesus' teachings and warnings, and seek to understand all that he has proclaimed and taught about what will happen if we fail to listen. *copyright © J. ### TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In recent weeks, we have reviewed how the Churches of East and West have enriched one another, and this past Thursday's solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary was born in the Eastern Church. It is a gift from the ancient Church of Jerusalem, a commemoration of the death of Mary, and a feast charged with a deep sense of the Resurrection. Mary, the first disciple, is the first to share fully in Christ's victory over death. In the tradition of the East, August 15 is the "Dormition of the Theotokos," or the "Falling Asleep of the God-bearer." There is no shadow of death or gloom in the theology, since this is seen as a transformation of Mary's life into a heavenly and immortal existence. There is a sense in the tradition that she who made earth heavenly and exalted the human race by her faithfulness is glorified today.

A persistent legend among Orthodox Christians tells how all the disciples, except Thomas, who was preaching in India, were present at Mary's death and burial, and sat by the tomb for three days. On the third day, Thomas saw Mary's body rising to heaven. She greeted him as "my friend," and he was escorted by angels to proclaim her assumption to the others, who then realized her tomb was empty. Thus Thomas, the one who expressed doubt at the resurrection of Christ, received a gift from Mary: the chance to proclaim resurrection faith to the disciples.

"Protect Our Kids" Seminar for Parents, with Catholic Experts

Sunday, September 8, 2:00 – 4:00 pm (Spanish)
Thursday, September 12, 6:30 – 8:30 pm (English)

Parents DO have a say in what, whether, and how public schools teach their children about sex. Parents of children in California public schools have these rights: To be notified about planned sexual education instruction; to review those materials in advance; to "opt-out" or excuse their child from attending -- in part or all -- sex and HIV-prevention education programs. The California Conference of Catholic Bishops recently issued updated guidelines on the law. The Archdiocesan Office of Human Life and Dignity offers two new seminars for parents to learn the facts and discuss their concerns:

- En Español: Domingo 8 de Septiembre de 2:00 a 4:00 pm, St. Anthony Church, 3500 Middlefield Rd., Menlo Park.
- In English: Thursday, September 12, St. Dominic's Church, 2390 Bush St, SF

SAVE THE DATE – Requiem Mass for the Homeless

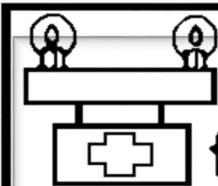

Deceased Saturday, November 23, 11:00 am
Church of the Visitation, 655 Sunnydale Ave.

When they die, who remembers the chronically homeless and often mentally ill, alcoholic, or drug-addicted men and women who wandered our streets? Often, no one. In many cases, no one around them even knew their real names. But they are children of God. All the faithful of the Archdiocese are invited to join us on November 23rd for the 2nd annual Requiem Mass for the Homeless Faithful Departed. Archbishop Cordileone will preside. There are approximately 2,100 chronically homeless on our streets, according to the San Francisco Homeless Count & Survey 2017, a biennial survey. Exact numbers of homeless deaths are difficult to track, although mortality is 4 to 9 times higher among chronically homeless people than among the general population, and life expectancy is 25 years shorter. San Francisco averages 7,500 people categorized as homeless each night, including families and students living in vehicles, in tents, and in parks while going to school and work each day. ### Women's Retreats for Healing after Abortion

Projectrachel@sfarch.org 415-614-5567

It's normal to grieve a pregnancy loss, including the loss of a child by abortion. It can form a hole in one's heart so deep that sometimes it seems nothing can fill the emptiness. The Archdiocese of San Francisco sponsors Project Rachel, which helps women and men heal the pain of abortion and find the path to peace and reconciliation. There are two retreats (for women only) in September. Counseling, Mass, and the Sacrament of Reconciliation will be offered. The retreats are held at a confidential site, and all inquiries are confidential. A $50 donation is asked, but can be waived for financial hardship. The retreats are: September 7 - 8 (in Spanish), led by Fr. Armando Gutierrez, Archdiocese of San Francisco, and September 14 - 15 (in English), led by Fr. Vito Perrone, Contemplatives of St. Joseph, with the Daughters of Carmel. Sign up by e-mail or phone (above), or submit your information on the form at sfarchdiocese.org/rachel.
