Pastor's Corner

Novena to Good St. Anne - This is our 113th year of the St. Anne Novena. But this will certainly be different than all others. Unfortunately with the skyrocketing cases of coronavirus in our State, LA & San Francisco, the Redemptorists won't be able to come nor will we be open to all of you for Novena masses, communion and blessings with the Relics of St. Anne. However, we will do a virtual Novena. Below, Fr. Patrick will share with us our upcoming plans.

Strong in the Face of Tribulation: The Church in Communion – a Sure Support in Time of Trial.

Dear Parishioners of Good Saint Anne!

I always look forward to joining you for the Novena to your patroness Good Saint Anne. This year I was especially excited thinking I could take a scenic drive up the coast to be with you. Unfortunately, like so many things this year we have had to modify our plans.

This year we will have a virtual novena. With the continued high infection rate and the limit on numbers your Pastor Fr. Dan has decided it is best that the novena be held on line. The priests in the parish will celebrate the Novena mass at 8:45am and the Redemptorists will celebrate the novena at 3:00pm. The novena will be posted on line so you will be able to participate at any time. I have invited 8 Redemptorists to join me for the nine days of the novena: familiar faces including Frs. John Schmidt; Ted Lawson, Lamar Partin, Eugene Butumbacal, Maurice Nutt and Aaron Meszaros and some new faces Frs. Ted Dorcey and Kevin Zubel.

Our theme for this year is taken from Pope Francis' book of prayers on the Pandemic, Strong in the Face of Tribulation: The Church in Communion – a Sure Support in Time of Trial. Each day we reflect on a different theme from the Pope's book. In the Church's 2000-year history we have survived through other Pandemics, Wars, Depressions and trials and through the Grace of God we have survived. The same is true for St. Anne's, in our 113-year history the parish has struggled but our Patroness good St. Anne has always brought us closer to Jesus.

I wish that I could be with you in person for the Novena but I take joy that we will be together in prayer. Please join us every day at 8:45am or 3:00pm for our novena. May Good Saint Anne keep us safe and allow us to gather in person next year!
