Third Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ January 23, 2022

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me,because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord.
Luke 4:18

GOD'S LAW

Scripture has always held God's law to be the path to human happiness. In today's first reading, Ezra the priest reads the scroll of the law to the people returned from exile. They weep—then are joyful. Israel's relationship with God had always been defined by how they kept and lived God's law. The author of Psalm 96 likewise praises the law of God as the source of wisdom, joy and enlightenment, purity and justice.

In his advice to the bickering Corinthians, Paul points out that, just as God has made all parts of a human body essential for the health of the whole, living as "Christ's body" requires that each member be recognized as necessary for the good of all. Finally, in Luke's Gospel Jesus claims that the Spirit is sending him to relieve human suffering. Like Ezra, he is reading from a scroll, proclaiming God's "law" of mercy to those in need.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Ezra read from the book of the law of God to the assembled people. They understood and accepted the law (Nehemiah 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10).

Psalm — Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life (Psalm 19).

Second Reading — As the body with its many parts is still one body, so it is with Christ
(1 Corinthians 12:12-30 [12-14, 27]).

Gospel — While attending worship in the Nazarean synagogue, Jesus reads from the prophet Isaiah and declares himself to be the fulfillment of the prophecy
(Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21).

Pastor's Column

Quotes from Abortion Survivors — With the debate over abortion-rights once again in the news, I'd like to share some perspective from survivors of abortion to help us reflect on this pro-choice/pro-life debate:

- Melissa Ohden (abortion survivor) – "It's easy to talk about abortion as a right or a choice when you aren't the one who was aborted."
- Steve Jobs (adopted) – "I wanted to meet [my birth mother] mostly to see if she was OK and to thank her, because I'm glad I didn't end up as an abortion. She was 23 and she went through a lot to have me."
- Valerie Gatto (Ms. Pennsylvania 2014, conceived in rape) – "My mom always told me I was her light. The way I look at it, from that moment of conception, I was the light associated with the darkness."
- Gianna Jessen (Abortion Survivor) – "The best thing I can show you to defend life is my life. It has been a great gift. I have met other survivors of abortion. They are all thankful for Life... when I speak, I speak not only for myself, but for the other survivors... and also those who cannot yet speak."
- Claire Culwell (Abortion Survivor) – "Hundreds of other survivors of abortions are speaking up, letting the world know that we ARE children, we DO deserve a chance at life and that abortion is clearly, NOT SAFE."

As we hear their voices that remind us that the child in the womb also has a right to life, let us pray for our nation and for the healing of mothers and fathers who have chosen to abort their child, and for our little ones:

A Prayer for Life by Fr. Michael Pavlakovich

"O Most Holy Lord, Creator of heaven and earth, from Your gentle hand flows the gift of life. To your sons and daughters, You have given the role of stewards to care for all Your creation from womb to tomb. Hear us as we pray for a greater respect for all of life throughout our world:

- That the unborn may be born.
- That the child may be safe.
- That the teen may be prepared.
- That the young adult may be other-centered.
- That the adult may be selfless.
- That the aged may be revered.
- That the dying may have dignity.
- That the deceased may rest in peace.
- That the resources of creation may be used well.
- That all Your creation may be blessed.

Having served You loyally on earth, may we obtain the rewards of everlasting life. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen."

— Fr Dan

Opportunities for Participation in Pope Francis's Synod in the New Year!

Pope Francis invites the whole Church to participate in the preparatory process for the upcoming Synod of Bishops on Synodality. This unprecedented opportunity will facilitate discussion and reflection to help shape the Church's understanding of herself and her mission of evangelization and forming disciples. The Archdiocese of San Francisco begins the local synodal process this month by asking every Catholic to participate in the Disciple Maker Index survey. We are asking all parishioners to take the Disciple Maker Index (DMI) Survey between now and February 15, as part of the Archdiocesan synodal process. The Disciple Maker Index survey is a nationally recognized survey administered at parishes around the United States and Canada since 2013 by The Catholic Leadership Institute. The results from this survey will provide baseline feedback from which content for engagement sessions will be developed. For more details, please visit <http://www.sfarch.org/synod>.
