THE MESSAGE OF CHRIST'S LOVE

From the proclamation of the Gospel at the beginning of the liturgy, we know that today is different, not only because we hear two Gospel passages, or because we hold palms and move in procession. Today begins Holy Week, a time set apart, a week in which to listen, pray, reflect, and take to heart the truth of Christ's passion, crucifixion, death, and ultimately, resurrection. It takes a week, and a lifetime, to truly hear the message of Christ's love. It is difficult for us to comprehend that Jesus willingly sacrificed himself, so we must hear the story again and again. Let this week be for us a new moment of faith in which we, together with the criminal who was crucified with Christ, cry out, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."

Pastor's Column

Praying Through Holy Week - Fr. Mike Schmitz, in a video produced by Ascension Presents, shares how the Franciscan Sisters of the Eucharist in Duluth, Minnesota, observe Holy Week. From the Saturday before Palm Sunday until Easter, every day has an intention, a focus. These are their reflections and prayers for each day:

- Commitment Saturday – Before Jesus entered Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, scripture tells us that "Jesus was resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem" (Lk 9:51). Even though Jesus knew the cross awaited Him, He did not flinch from doing the Father's will. So on this Saturday, as Jesus committed Himself to doing His Father's will, we are invited to reflect on our own commitment to Christ.
- Procession Sunday - On Palm Sunday, as Jesus processed publicly into Jerusalem, we are invited to consider: are we publicly committed to walking with Jesus even when it's unpopular?
- Extravagance Monday – Following Jesus' entrance into Jerusalem, as he ate at the house of Simon the leper, a woman came with a jar of perfumed oil and poured it abundantly on Jesus (Mk 14:3). Although others saw it as a waste, for the oil could have been sold for money, Jesus defended her. So on this extravagant Monday, are we willing to give ourselves extravagantly to Jesus?
- Compulsion to Completion Tuesday - As Jesus had publicly committed Himself to do the Father's will, He reaffirmed that commitment on Completion Tuesday. Over the course of our lives, especially in difficult times, will we remain faithful even in adversity?
- Day of Aloneness on Wednesday - Before Jesus' arrest the following day, Jesus felt a certain aloneness. But Judas and all who choose the path of sin will also feel that aloneness. Which path will we choose?
- Body Given on Thursday - The reflection on this day is not only that Jesus' body would be given to the guards at Gethsemane, but above all, how He gave His Body, Blood, and Divinity to us in the Eucharist.
- Impotence Friday - The all-powerful God made Himself powerless to give Himself to us.
- Darkness Saturday - The coldness of death and darkness of the tomb make all day Saturday feel like night.
- Miracle Sunday - Our God, who made Himself powerless to become a sacrifice for us, conquers death and transforms suffering to redeem the world.

As we reflect on Jesus' journey through Holy Week, we invite you to join us in one or all of the scheduled events in our Church. Please see the next page for our schedule of services.

In his role as primary teacher of the Church, Pope Francis has issued recently several important documents. Chief among them is Laudato Si' (On Care for Our Common Home) The talks in this short series will investigate some of the biblical grounding of the Holy Father's thinking.

April 19 — Our attitude toward the rest of the natural world springs from our understanding of what it means to be a human being. (Gen 1:26-28; 3:5)

April 26 — At the very foundation of our creature hood, we are connected with all other Earth creatures (Gen 2:7, 9, 19, 22-23; 9:9-10; Hos 2:20)

May 3 — As Earth creatures, we are totally dependent on Earth, and in many ways, Earth is dependent on us (Hos 2:10-11; Ex 20:11 [Deut 5:15]; Ex 23:10-11; Lev 25:1-4)
