Father's Column Gratitude...

Our Easter celebration here at St. Anne was a complete success. On behalf of the Pastor, we say a big thank you to all the people who faithfully attended the services and those who worked tirelessly to ensure we had a smooth liturgical celebration. We thank our musicians who throughout Holy Week did an outstanding job led by our Music Director, Randell Rentar. At Easter Sunday Mass, we had 2 cantors, a beautiful choir, 2 guitarists and 4th grader Tomas on the drums.

Thank you to Carmen, Giselle, Joseph, Matthew, Nicolino, Paul and Stephanie, who shared beautiful reflections for the Last 7 Words of Jesus. Your stories are inspiring. Thank you for taking the time to prepare and share them with us. It made Good Friday special and helped us connect to what the Lord has done for us. There are so many people to thank in preparation for Easter Vigil, the scouts who cleaned up Saturday morning, Sr. Mary Francis and her environment volunteers who did a marvelous job decorating and transforming this space

DIFFICULTY, SURVIVAL, AND GLORY

In Revelation, John the Evangelist tells us what we can expect as followers of the risen Jesus: distress, endurance, and a kingdom. Although we are only eight days into our fifty-day Easter feasting, we cannot ignore the distress weighing down our daily lives. Jesus' resurrection does not erase individual suffering, but his glorious triumph over death cultivates endurance in our hearts. We remember that Jesus did not spare himself, and we ask for the strength to endure as he did. Imitating Christ helps us grow as members of God's royal family. As beloved citizens of the Kingdom of God, we recognize our kinship with all people. Peter demonstrates his care for others as he heals multitudes of broken, suffering people. In the Gospel, Thomas accepts his own spiritual healing when Jesus helps him to believe. In times of difficulty, survival, and glory, we borrow Thomas' declaration of faith: "My Lord and my God!"

Strengthening the Church at Home

This Week's 2nd Collection: Catholic Home Missions

The ten counties of southern New Mexico that constitute the Diocese of Las Cruces have a small population spread across an area the size of the entire state of Ohio. Given a population density of only 17 people per square mile, priests often travel long distances over rugged mountainous and desert terrain to serve the faithful in local parishes. Despite the challenge of accessibility and a high poverty rate, the faithful of the diocese assist each other in creative ways to form disciples. With a diocesan poverty rate ranging from 13% to 29%, parishes of limited means lack resources to provide catechetical textbooks and the other religious education materials that volunteer catechists need so they can provide children and youth with quality religious education. Thanks to the generosity of local parishioners and support from Catholic Home Missions, the Diocese of Las Cruces has implemented a Mission Textbook Fund. Needy parishes and missions can apply for and receive the funds they need to purchase materials for their catechists to use in religious education programs. Since 2015, 18 parishes and missions in the diocese have benefited from the program. When you participate in the Catholic Home Missions Appeal, you become a neighbor to Catholics in Las Cruces and other home mission dioceses across the country that benefit from the collection.

What Is a Home Mission Diocese? Home mission dioceses are those Catholic dioceses in the United States, its territories, and former territories that cannot provide basic pastoral services without outside help. Basic pastoral services include Mass, the sacraments, religious education, and ministry training for priests, deacons, religious sisters, and laypeople. Nearly 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are considered home missions. For more information about the Catholic home missions, visit www.usccb.org/home-missions.
