Benedict XVI: Sons of Columbus:
A New Play by Ruth Pe Palileo
Sunday, August 14, 2022, 2:00 pm (Via Zoom)

The name of Father Michael McGivney is forever associated with the Knights of Columbus, a Catholic Order he founded during his lifetime. Now a Blessed, he died of tuberculosis on August 14, 1890 in Thomaston, Connecticut. He was only 38. The name of Chip Smith is forever associated in the annals of jurisprudence with the "Chip Smith Instruction" in which a judge insists his jurors break a deadlock. Chip murdered Ansonia's Chief of Police in a drunken rage and died on September 1, 1882, the first person in twenty years to be hanged in Connecticut. He was only 23. Both men were American sons of Irish immigrants; both grew up playing on the working class streets of Connecticut. Father Michael held his first job at a spoon-making factory; Chip took a revolver to the hoopskirt factory where he failed to get a job and fatally shot Chief Hayes after first agreeing to be arrested quietly. Told he had killed the Chief, Chip said he was "glad of it" and expected "others to do their part" in defying the law. Based on historical records from the New York Times and New Haven Morning Journal and Courier, this play imagines the 600 days after Chip's arrest, when Father Michael regularly visited him in jail. Through his meetings with Blessed Michael, Chip transformed from a "leading spirit in the rough and troublesome element of the boroughs", as the New York Times called him, to a man whose final requests were a High Mass in his jail cell and prayers that he might die a holy death.

Faith

Our readings today explore how faith begins and how faith works. Faith begins with God's initiative of love, together with God's promise about the future. The passage from Hebrews urges readers to have an assured confidence in God, who promised and delivered a lasting legacy to Abraham. The book of Wisdom reminds readers of the God who promised and delivered freedom from slavery during the Exodus. In the Gospel passage from Luke, Jesus begins with the promise that "your Father is pleased to give you the Kingdom," before describing how to live faithfully during times when God seems absent. God's promises mean that God is fully invested in our future. Living in these promises, we can confidently let go of fear and insecurity. We can anticipate that when God intervenes in our lives, it will be for our benefit. And we can become God's partners in fulfilling these divine promises.

Weekend Silent Retreat for Women:
"A Living Encounter With Jesus"
St. Clare Retreat House
2381 Laurel Glen Road, Soquel, CA

Two Retreat Options:

1) Friday, Sept 9 through Sunday, Sept 11

2) Friday, Sept 23 through-Sunday, Sept 25.

This silent retreat is with Fr. Dominic DeMaio, O.P. and Fr. Sergius Propst, O.P. The retreat theme is "The Grace of Healing Anxiety, Worry and Distress - Matt. 14:27: 'Do not be afraid...'" We live in challenging times. We may find ourselves feeling overwhelmed with anxiety, worry, and distress. The good news of Jesus and the Scriptures lead us to peace and faith. Take some time away for rest, prayer, and deepening your faith. Enjoy the beautiful forest and mountains at St. Clare Retreat House in Soquel (near Santa Cruz). Registration, details, and biographies of Fr. DeMaio and Fr. Propst can be found at
