Who We Are and Whose We Are

The Lenten season is a fresh invitation to explore again who God is, who we are, and what it means to be human. We begin by hearing the tragic story of the first humans in the book of Genesis. As Paul describes in Romans, our struggles started when our ancestors broke the bond of unity with God, sought self-sufficiency, and grew apart from their true purpose and identity. In Matthew's Gospel, we see how Jesus resists the lure of living outside of unity with God. Jesus rejects false promises of possessions, power, and status. Instead, he puts his life in his Father's hands. As our model for living as a fully human person, Jesus demonstrates that we are created to live in relationship with and trust in God, and in harmony with and for all of creation.

Pastor's Column

Pope's Lenten Message – "Today, the Lenten journey begins. Dear young people, I hope you will live this time of grace as a return to the Love of the Father, who waits for all with open arms. Dear sick, I encourage you to offer your sufferings for the conversion of those that live far from the faith; and I invite you, dear newlyweds, to build your new family on the rock of the love of God."

Pope Francis also suggests the following ideas for Fasting:

- Fast from hurting words... and say kind words.
- Fast from sadness... and be filled with gratitude.
- Fast from anger... and be filled with patience.
- Fast from pessimism... and be filled with hope.
- Fast from worries... and have trust in God.
- Fast from complaints... and contemplate simplicity.
- Fast from pressures... and be prayerful.
- Fast from bitterness... and fill your heart with joy.
- Fast from grudges... and be reconciled.
- Fast from words... and be silent so you can listen.

Lastly, Pope Francis invites us to pray:

Dear Lord, help us to be your ears to listen to the cries of the poor. Help us to be your voice speaking out love and acceptance. Help us to be your feet walking beside those in need. Help us to be your hands to clothe, feed, and shelter them. You came for the least, the lost and last of this world. Lord, hear our prayer. Amen.

What's Communio Again? – It's a relationship ministry the parish is partnering with this year. The goal of Communio is to help strengthen relationships and focuses on Singles, Marriage Preparation, Marriage Enrichment, and Marriages in Need. Communio believes that faith is strongest within a healthy marriage. In fact, statistics show that the rise of "Nones" in the current generation, those who identify as having no religious affiliation, is tied directly to the breakdown in family life. So they view their ministry of enriching relationships as being tied directly to strengthening faith. To kick off this ministry, we want to do a 90-second survey to assess the relational health of our community. This is the 2nd part of our Survey, as we look for ways to better serve you. May I invite you to take the time to respond to the survey? We'll run the survey for 2 weeks, this Sunday and next. From the results of this survey, Communio will help the Parish Council and Staff develop a strategy for the year. If you wish to learn more or to participate in this ministry, please don't hesitate to let me know. Know that we value your input and participation.
