Corpus Christi Sunday

June 2, 2024

He took the bread, said the blessing,
broke it, gave it to them, and said,
“Take it; this is my body.”

What does the covenant in Exodus mean?

The covenant is a serious promise between God and the Israelites. It means that the people agreed to follow God's laws, and God promised to be with them.

Why did Moses sprinkle blood on the people?

Moses sprinkling blood was a sign of sealing the covenant. It showed that the agreement was important and required full commitment from the people.

How is Jesus different from other high priests?

Jesus is called the perfect high priest because he offered himself, not animals. His sacrifice is perfect and lasts forever.

What is the new covenant mentioned in Hebrews?

The new covenant is God's new promise made through Jesus. It means that by believing in Jesus, we are forgiven and can have a close relationship with God.

What does it mean that Jesus entered heaven with his own blood?

This means that Jesus went into God's special place with the sacrifice of his own life. This opened a way for us to have eternal life.

Why did Jesus set up the Eucharist during Passover?

During Corpus Christi Year B, we learn that Jesus set up the Eucharist to continue Passover in a new way. It helps us remember his sacrifice and presence with us always.

How can I apply the message of the Eucharist in my daily life?

You can apply it by living a life that shows love and forgiveness, just as Jesus taught. Try to be kind and helpful to others, and participate in Mass.

What does it mean to offer ourselves to God's kingdom as Jesus did?

It means living in a way that honors God and helps others. We can do this by following Jesus' example of love, service, and obedience.

Pastor's Column

Reputation of Our Graduates – This past week our 8th graders had a Dinner Dance on Tuesday, a picnic on Wednesday, a Baccalaureate Mass on Thursday, and Graduation on Friday. It's nice that after years of hard work, stressing out over projects and exams, worrying about which High Schools to apply to and which ones would accept them, to come to the end and enjoy the fruits of their labor. At the Baccalaureate Mass, I shared with our graduates that they have developed a wonderful reputation. Wherever they go on field trips or whenever visitors come and speak to them, a common refrain that is shared with us is how kind and polite our students are. And not only that, they are also helpful and supportive of one another, even calling each other out when one or two are inappropriate. Unfortunately, these are not necessarily the qualities that are valued in our world, but they sure are what is needed to make our world a better place. Their reputation is also rooted in the values of the Students' Creed, and I encouraged them to continue to live these values into adulthood. For these are the values good for the soul, good for our community, and good for the world: We believe in Living our lives based on the teachings of Jesus, Learning new things every day for the rest of our lives, Respecting all of God's Creation, and Caring for our Worldwide Family. I'd like to acknowledge and thank their parents for all the sacrifices, help, and guidance they've given to help their children reach such a milestone, and their teachers from Preschool to 8th grade. Each contributed to the success of our graduates. To all, a job well done! Vayan con Dios, mis Amigos!

Reputation of Our Principal – As many of you may have heard, our Principal Thomas White is retiring after having served in our School for 33 years and having been in education for 51 years. He too has developed quite a reputation not only as a capable Principal, but as a wise mentor to new teachers and principals. As a Principal he excelled. If you were to do a computer search for the qualities of a good Principal, it would direct you to go see Tom. He's a capable classroom teacher, he's good with students as well as parents, knowing how to address their needs accordingly. He's also a good listener, a wise counselor, a great administrator, and a good friend to many. So we will sorely miss him as he retires. But we also wish him the very best in his new adventure, and pray in the words of the Irish Blessing, May the road rise to meet you, may the wind be always at your back, may the sun shine warm upon your face... and until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of His hand.
