

SAINT ANNE OF THE SUNSET

Sunday - July 21, 2024 (16th Sunday in Ordinary Time)

Father's Column

A 9 Day Retreat – While the US Church is celebrating the National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis from July 17-21, we have at our own parish, for those unable to travel such a great distance, our own Eucharistic Devotion from July 18-26. In this year's 117th Novena to Good St Anne, the Redemptorist Fathers are here to help us go deeper in our love and appreciation of the Eucharist. As Fr. Patrick Keyes spoke on the 1st day of the retreat, the goal is not to convince us of the presence of Christ in the Eucharist, but to deepen our friendship with the Lord. The Gospel on the 1st day of the Novena was from Matthew 11:28-30, Jesus inviting us to come to Him with our burdens. He doesn't tell us to go away or don't bring me your problems, but invites us like a loving father to come to Him. And Fr. Patrick said: we all have our concerns, whether it's with the family, the children who no longer practice the faith, the upcoming election, our health or the economy. No matter what it is Jesus invites us to come and bring our worries to Him. Bring it to Him in prayer, sit with Him. Bring it to the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, which is what unites all of us as Catholic Christians. It's still not too late to join us. The masses during the rest of the week (M-F) are at 8:45am, 2:30pm & 7pm. It concludes on Friday, July 26 on the Feast of St Anne. Come, bring your burdens, invite a friend, and draw closer to the Lord.

Prayer of St. Alphonsus on the Eucharist - My Lord Jesus Christ, who for the love of your people remains night and day in the Eucharist full of compassion and love, you call, you wait for, you welcome everyone who comes to visit you. I believe you are truly present in the sacrament of the altar; I adore you and I thank you for all the graces you have given me, and in particular for having given yourself to me in this sacrament. My Jesus I love you with my whole heart. I consecrate myself entirely to you. I give you my will, my affections, my desires and all that I possess. I ask that you do with me as you please. All I ask is your love, final perseverance and the desire to do your will.
