

Pastor's Column

St Anne Champions – As many of you are familiar with CYO (Catholic Youth Organization), its goal isn't just about helping young people excel in sports and win games. It uses sports to teach young people important life lessons such as teamwork, discipline and responsibility. Winning is secondary to learning these important life lessons while encouraging healthy competition. Sports is also a great community builder not only among players and their families, but also with the teams and families they play up against. We may, while we're playing a game have some friendly rivalry, but afterwards we can all laugh and enjoy this fun experience. And that's what happened two weeks ago as the Volleyball and Soccer Season wound down. We got a chance to come out and root for our favorite team. We congratulate the following Soccer teams for making the playoffs:

- 4th Grade

Coaches: Jonathan Bodway & Jim Chan

- 5th Grade – Won 2nd place

Coaches: Matt Wilson & Peter Chak

- And 7th Grade

Coaches: Ivan Chan & Danny Sheh

And we congratulate the following Volleyball teams for making the playoffs:

- 3rd Grade – Won 2nd place.

Coaches: Pauline Tan-Jung, Derek Ng and Tiffani Mah

- 4th Grade – Won 1st place

Coach: Jenny Solano

- 5th Grade – Won 1st place

Coaches: Abhi Shek, Johan Kwan & Rob Soto

- 6th Grade – Won 1st place

Coaches: Abhi Shek & Raymond Lew

- 8th Grade – Won 1st place

Coaches: Phil & Steph Phung

I want to thank the coaches for their time and dedication, and I especially want to recognize our Athletic Director, Mrs. Mie Mie Kwong, and her board, Jenny Solano, Brian Jann and Roy Edgar for their hard work and dedication to make CYO sports a fun and life giving experience for the players, coaches and families. You help turn our players into Champions. GO STARS!!!

- Fr. Dan

Congrats 5th Grade – 2nd Place

Congrats 3rd Grade – 2nd Place

Missionaries of Charity Thanksgiving Food Collection ~ Month of November ~

Please help us collect canned and boxed, non-perishable foods, like boxed dried pasta, vegetables, Spam, etc. for those in need. Bring them with you when you come to mass or visit the Church. There are bins in place for the collection of your generous donations. Should the Church be closed, bring your items to the Rectory. The last day of collections will be Sunday, November 30th.

COOKIES, COOKIES, COOKIES! for the Homebound

Bakers and Cookie Elves, under the direction of Cely Zapanta nd Sr. Mary Francis, baked, assembled and delivered 1000 cookies to the Homebound and elderly just in time for Thanksgiving. The Cookie Elves gather twice a year for Easter and Thanksgiving since the program began in 1995, to prepare baskets of home baked delicacies for the homebound. Happy Eating!
