

St. Anne of the Sunset Church

2018-2019

“Now there are a variety of gifts, but the same Spirit;
and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord;
and there are a variety of activities, but it is the same God who empowers them all in everyone.

To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit
for the common good.”

(1 Corinthians 12:4-7)

Dear Brother or Sister in Christ,

St. Paul taught that God has gifted each of us with a unique gift for a particular reason. To discover why God created us and to use the gift He has blessed us with is part of the great adventure in life. And when we do finally discover our “calling,” not only will we feel blessed and our lives become full and complete, but we also become a blessing to those around us.

As human beings, however, we discover by trying. I discovered my own vocation to the priesthood by first serving as a Eucharistic Minister, bringing communion to the sick in the hospital. Later on, I taught religion to children. And in doing so, I discovered how much I delighted in ministry, that I eventually felt called by God to serving Him full time as a priest.

So I encourage you to not be afraid to try new things in life, even if you feel stretched outside your comfort zone. In following where we think the Lord is leading us, the Good Shepherd is always by our side and will eventually lead us into the greatest adventure we can ever imagine in this life. Say “yes” to God and allow Him to show you what He has in mind for you. And if you feel called to one of the ministries listed in this booklet, don’t hesitate to call the contact person for more information. But if you feel called to something and it’s not listed in here, then call me. Together we can discern where the Lord is leading us.

Our parish is made great by people who are willing to give of themselves to serve Christ, His Church and one another. Say “yes” to God, and you’ll never regret it.

With prayers and blessings,

Fr. Daniel Nascimento
Pastor

Bible Study (also known as Scripture Study)

What better way to understand our Christian faith than to immerse oneself in a weekly 2-hour study of the Bible? Over the course of several weeks, members take turns reading aloud in class a chapter being examined. At the end of every chapter, our teacher leads the group through a verse by verse analysis of the text, answering questions. Often, general discussions on the topic at hand arise. When the discussion is finished, the next chapter is read aloud by the person whose turn it is, followed by another analysis and another discussion. By meeting once a week for several years, this group has read every word of the entire Bible, and we are now reading it through a second time!

This has been of immense benefit to lectors, who now understand the context of the selections of Scripture they are asked to read at Mass and of great value to people who feel as though they would like to read the Bible, may even have tried, but have gotten bogged down in complexities. While the perspective is Catholic, the approach is not literal; we take into account the historical and theological imperatives that shape each book, as well as the purpose and target audience of its human authors. This is adult faith formation from the deepest source - the Word of God!

Children rejoin their parents after the prayers of the faithful.

Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA)

This is the process by which adults 18 years or older interested in becoming full members of the Catholic church prepare for and receive their Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, First Eucharist, and Confirmation). Neocatechumenal Way

The Neocatechumenal Way is one of the fruits of the Second Vatican Council. Saint John Paul II affirmed it “as an itinerary of Catholic formation valid for our society and our times” which can: “answer to the challenge of secularization, the spread of sects, and the lack of vocations. The reflection of the word of God and the participation in the Eucharist make it possible for a gradual initiation into the sacred mysteries.

The Neocatechumenate is one way to help those who have not been sufficiently evangelized and catechized to deepen their faith, as well as to bring back those who have drifted away from the Church or who have abandoned the faith. Among the many fruits of this Way are families who have reconciled, and are open to life, as well as numerous vocations to the priesthood and religious life. The members of the NCW live their faith in small communities within the parish by meeting regularly to celebrate the Word and the Eucharist.

Stewardship Committee

The Stewardship Committee is a new ministry with a mission to communicate the meaning of stewardship. Many Christians in the church today view stewardship only as giving money to the church. Stewardship is how we take care of everything God has given to us. That includes our friendships and family, our gifts and abilities, our money and our world. We respond to God's great gifts by giving back to Him. Christian Stewardship concept suggest that we are given three gifts: The Gift of Our Time, The Gift of our Unique Talents, and The Gift of Treasure. These three gifts are symbolic of the three gifts presented by the Magi at Christ's birth. Over the next several months, planned activities include a ministry fair to introduce parishioners to the various ministries that St. Anne's Church has and provide the opportunity to join the ministry they are interested in.

Ushers

The ministry of the Ushers is not only to help the pastor with the collections. Its primary role is to keep order, to help create a spirit of worship, reverence, and friendliness in and about the Church because we are the face of the Church to those who come to worship and visit.

A Volunteer's Prayer

Dear Heavenly Father,

My parish is composed of people like me;
I help make it what it is.
It will be friendly, if I am.

Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them.
It will do great work, if I work. It will be prayerful, if I pray.

It will make generous gifts to many causes,
if I am a generous giver.

It will bring other people into its worship
and fellowship,

if I invite and bring them.
It will be a parish of loyalty and love,

of fearlessness and faith, and a parish with a noble spirit,
if I, who make it what it is, am filled with these same things.

Therefore, with Your help, O God,
I shall dedicate myself to the task of being all things that I want my parish to be. Amen.
