

Other ways to help, in-kind gifts or make a card

Catholic Charities is now hosting the largest hotel in San Francisco for families experiencing homelessness during COVID-19 in partnership with the City of San Francisco. Recently opened, this hotel will provide 64 safe and secure rooms to families and is expected to house close to 200 individuals experiencing homelessness during shelter-in-place.

How can you help?

Bring any of these items to the rectory by next Sat, May 9 (during designated drop off times) for Mother's Day care packages.

- Full-sized toiletries
- packaged healthy snacks
- DIY greeting card, origami flowers, other. We can create together on Zoom.

For more information, email: star@stanne-sf.org

