THE DESTINY OF ALL MORTAL FLESH

The celebration of today's feast on a Sunday is unusual on our Roman Catholic calendar. Our observance of the Lord's Day is held in such high esteem that few other feasts replace it. Occasionally there is a feast—usually of one of the saints—in which the saving power of God in Christ is so uniquely focused that the Roman rite deems it worthy of celebration on the Lord's Day. Today is such a feast. Yet some are surprised at the brevity of the dogma in its entirety: "We pronounce, declare and define it to be a divinely revealed dogma: that the Immaculate Mother of God, the ever Virgin Mary having completed the course of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul to heavenly glory." The Roman Catholic Church never defined any specifics or particulars about the event itself. It is not in the scriptures. There are no verifiable eyewitness accounts. At its core, the dogma reveals in Mary the destiny of all mortal flesh, and reinforces our creedal belief in resurrection of the body. This feast strengthens our faith, defined in the Letter to the Hebrews as the realization of things hoped for. We find, in Mary, that realization of what we all hope for, what Paul today affirms: "In Christ shall all be brought to life" (1 Corinthians 15:22).

FEAST of FAITH:

The Shape of the Eucharistic Prayer

Our Eucharistic Prayers originated in the traditional Jewish meal prayers known as berakah, which were prayers of thanksgiving used at meals. Over the centuries, the Christian thanksgiving, or Eucharist, gradually took shape. While in the East the Eucharistic Prayers (called anaphora) took many forms, in the Roman Church there was for many centuries just one Eucharistic Prayer, called the Roman Canon (now known as Eucharistic Prayer I). Almost all Eucharistic Prayers include the same basic elements. They begin with thanksgiving and acclamation. Then there is an epiclesis, as the priest calls down the Holy Spirit upon the gifts. Then follows the institution narrative and consecration, as the words that Jesus spoke at the Last Supper are repeated. After the consecration, we remember in an explicit way all that Christ has done for us—this is the anamnesis, or remembering. The prayer concludes with the offering, the intercessions—prayers for the Church, our leaders, ourselves—and a final doxology of praise.

The reforms of the Second Vatican Council enriched our liturgy with additional Eucharistic Prayers, including both ancient texts (Eucharistic Prayer II is based on the most ancient of all existing Eucharistic Prayers) and new compositions and blessed is the fruit of your womb!

Dear Friends of Catholic Charities,

August is National Make-a-Will Month, a time to take stock of the people, causes, and organizations that make a difference in our lives and take an important step toward planning for the future.

Our Partner, FreeWill, which has been featured in Forbes and Oprah's 31 Best Ways to Make a Difference, makes estate planning free and accessible for everyone. The FreeWill tool removes the expensive legal costs associated with writing a will and takes less than 20 minutes to complete.

"We made our will and it was the best decision. We can rest assured that if anything happened to us, our loved ones would be provided for."

-The Jacobbergers

Over 320,000 Americans have written wills using this free and easy platform to create documents like a living will (also known as Advanced Healthcare Directive) or Financial Power of Attorney. We invite you to cement your legacy with Catholic Charities through an optional gift that supports Catholic Charities programs that better our community for years to come.

Would you like to have a Mass offered for yourself or a loved one? Drop by the rectory or call Tessie our parish secretary at extension 22 and request a date. A donation of $10 goes to the priest offering the Mass; a Mass card can be sent to you or picked up at the rectory. Like other Christians, we pray for ourselves and one another, but unlike other Christians, we pray for the dead because we believe forgiven souls must often be purified as they make their journey to heaven and prayers help.
